The students of the Fine Arts Department are primarily concerned with the creation and development of beautiful objects. The Art department concentrates on drawing, painting, sculpture and ceramics. The Music Department features both choral and instrumental training. Students can learn basic skills, as well as cultivate those they may already possess.

FINE ARTS

ENGLISH

English classes provide a strong foundation for the entire academic program, beginning with a strong basic skills program in 10th grade English. The sophomore GATE English class stresses inferential reading skills, a variety of composition skill, grammar usage and vocabulary development.

These skills are expanded in the 11th and 12th grade classes. Juniors are immersed in American Literature, and Seniors in English Literature. Remedial assistance is available.

Students of the Foreign Language Department have the opportunity to study French and Spanish. Not only do they learn vocabulary and language structure, but they also gain knowledge of the history, geography, culture and ideals of the countries whose language they study.

Instruction for bilingual students is provided and the department also has English as a Second Language (ESL) classes for those who need to gain proficiency in English.

The Alternative School is a school within a school that provides a program for students who wish to complete their educational requirements at their own speed. Berry Kelly, coordinator of the Alternative School explained that such schools have been placed on the campuses of all three Compton high schools.

Alternative School students attend 4 to 6 classes daily and have the same academic standards as do students in the regular classrooms. They may also be involved in sports or clubs.

According to Kelly, the program's goals are "to upgrade each student and enable him or her to get a high school diploma."

We as humans have a tremendous amount of curiosity about our environment. The science department offers a menu of classes that not only help to satisfy this curiosity, but also prepare the students to compete in the college world. Courses range from basic health and life science to the more advanced biology, chemistry, and physics.

Students analyze objects like the single-celled amoeba, in biology, and theories like quantum mechanics, in physics. They also contemplate the properties and structures of complex molecules, as well as the evolution of man.

The 1986-87 Dominguez Dons football team has earned its bragging rights. For more than a decade, "football" was a word that brought jeers and jokes about the Dons' playing ability. No more. An impressive season that was marked by significant victories over former "powerhouses", a sensational tie with Lynwood, and a long-awaited bid to the CIF playoffs changed all that.

Mid. Left: Assistant coach T. McCutcheon gives last minute game tips.

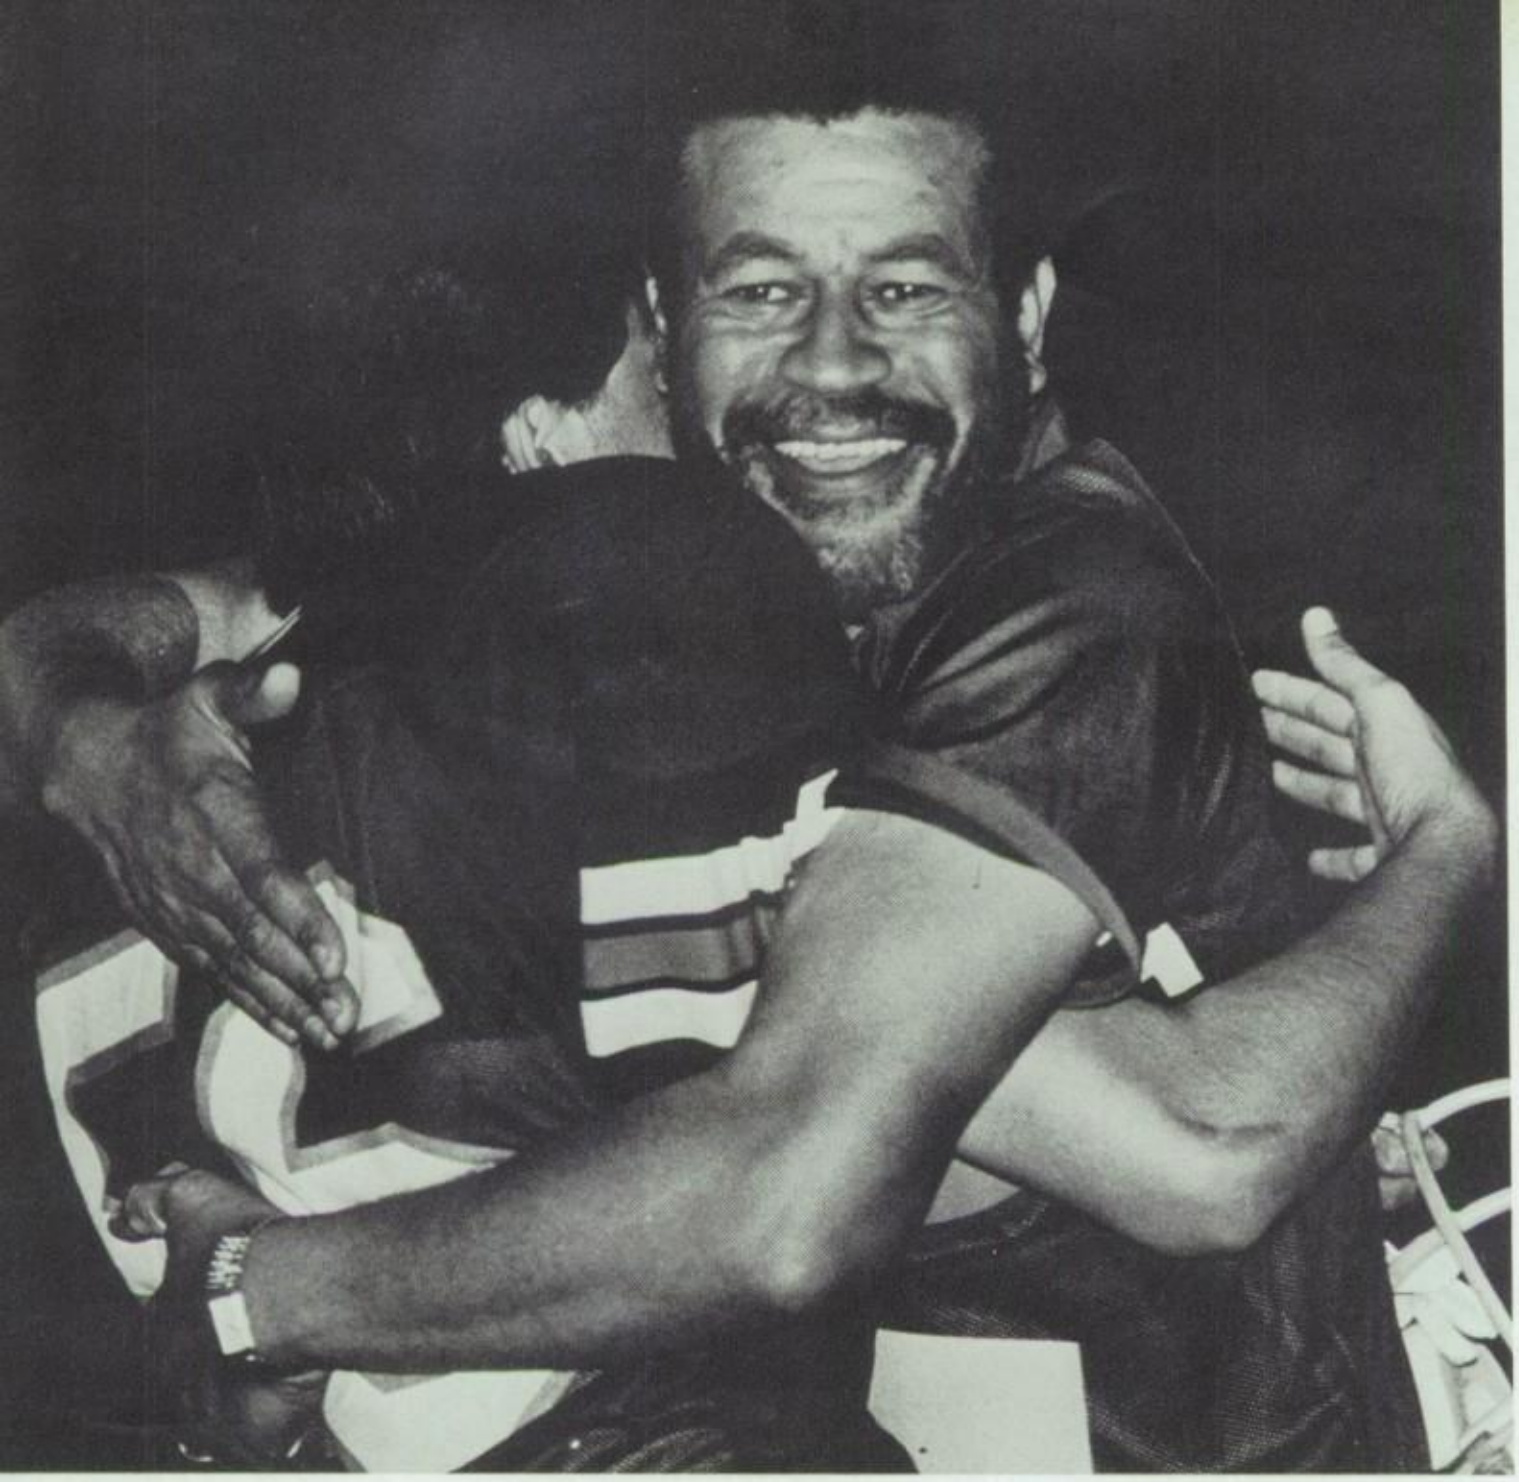
Lower Right: Anthony Green's valiant effort is halted by the enemy.



A jubilant Willie Donerson, head football coach, embraces kicker, Sergio Rodriguez as Dominguez ties Lynwood in historic game.

MARVIN HUNT (Junior) proves he's got what it takes to be a star. His honors include being named All Southeast, All League, All South Coast, and MVP for defense.

Assistant coach, Jerry Reed (center), cheers the Dons from the sidelines.

ANTHONY GREEN (Senior) led the SGVL in rushing and earned a host of honors for his ability: All Southeast, All League, All South Coast, All CIF (twice), and MVP for offense.

SOCCER 87

Soccer Coach Jose Rosas

Soccer Coach Gilbert Granger

A combination of superb players and excellent coaches led to the most sensational year in Don history for the soccer team which won the San Gabriel Valley League championship (10-0-2) and went on to a very respectable 3rd place in the CIF Southern Division playoffs. The team's overall record for the season was 20-2-4.

The Dons clinched first place in the SGVL undefeated, and in pre-season play took 2nd place in the Orange High School Tourney. Next year promises more of the same in spite of the loss of several prominent senior players.

HOOPIN IT UP IN DON COUNTRY

The Dons' Varsity Basketball team had an outstanding season ending with a SGVL record of 10-2 and 22-5 overall. In pre-season play, the Dons took 1st place in the J.W. North Tournament (Riverside) by defeating Edison, and 1st place in the prestigious Tournament of Champions at San Dimas by defeating Ocean View in a thrilling "eleventh hour" show of strategy. The San Dimas victory for the Dons was monumental since it is the first such honor accorded to Dominguez in the 15 year history of the Tournament of Champions.

The Dons ended a spectacular year by, once again, going to the CIF playoffs. Even their loss in a hard-fought third round of playoff action does not detract from the fine performance of a scrappy team and the excellence of a coaching staff headed by Ernie Carr

Ronnie Coleman seems to be thinking, "It's mine!" Coleman, a Division I scholarship winner, will attend USC in the fall.

BASKETBALL EXCELLENCE A TRIBUTE TO ERNIE CARR

Ernie Carr is to prep basketball what Reebok is to athletic shoes — quality, the top of the line. Carr, who serves as both athletic director and varsity basketball coach, has made Dominguez High a name to be respected in the 12 years that he has led the Dons. Carr's three-pronged approach to the game is to develop character, sportsmanship, and athletic excellence. He takes pride in the number of Dominguez players whom he has developed that have won Division I scholarships to nationwide universities.

Carr's spectacular coaching career includes an overall "win-loss" record of 195-102. His record over the last 8 years, however, is 150-48. It includes 8 straight CIF playoff appearances, one of which was as a 4-A finalist (1985), and one as a semi-finalist (1986). He has coached the Dons to 4 league championships and 4 second-place wins. His record over the past 6 years is 65-9 — a great record for an even greater coach.

Although the "Lady Dons" basketball team seemed to have a dismal season, there were bright spots in which they showed real playing ability. Center, Bolivia Estrada, and Forward, Shawntell Clark, demonstrated enviable prowess on the court, and the Dons' victories over Cerritos, Warren, and Paramount were due to a strong team effort.

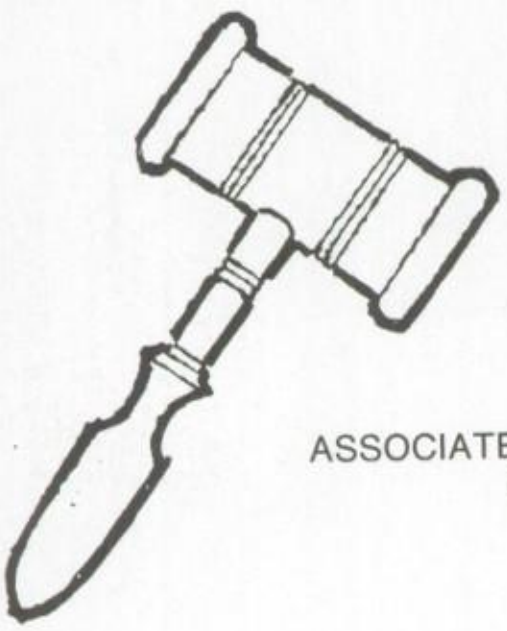
CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Students at Dominguez have a variety of clubs and organizations to choose from. Some of the organizations are motivational, some are educational, and most are designed to add an extra dimension to students' experience. Students learn to plan, organize, and carry out plans through these organizations. Students acquire leadership skills, learn the importance of cooperation, and get the opportunity to assume responsibility.

MESA



ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY COUNCIL

CAMPUS LIFE

Senior Student Council

Through participation in student government and organizations, students learn democratic procedures. In MESA students learn about careers in math and science, and may even earn monetary rewards for good grades. In MESA and UPWARD BOUND, students are given the opportunity to live on college campuses for a brief time while they take classes and compete in engineering contests.

In the AFRO AMERICAN club and MEXICAN AMERICAN club, students learn about their ethnic origins and participate in cultural activities.

CSF, HONOR ROLL, and VARSITY SCHOLARS encourage students to excel and earn good grades. Clubs like CAMPUS LIFE provide on and off-campus social activities with a Christian orientation.

GATE (Gifted and Talented) students are very active in every club on campus; many are active in several. Dominguez GATE students are represented on every athletic team and they are among the movers and shakers who add spice to the student body in Don Country.

POLY-NET PROGRAM

The Dominguez POLYNET program is part of the Polynet cooperative network of classes affiliated with California State Poly Technic University, Pomona.

College level classes are broadcast live from the Cal Poly campus and received at the school through the use of specialized electronics. Students watch the TV in a special viewing room in the library. After taking their examinations, students receive college credits for courses taken.

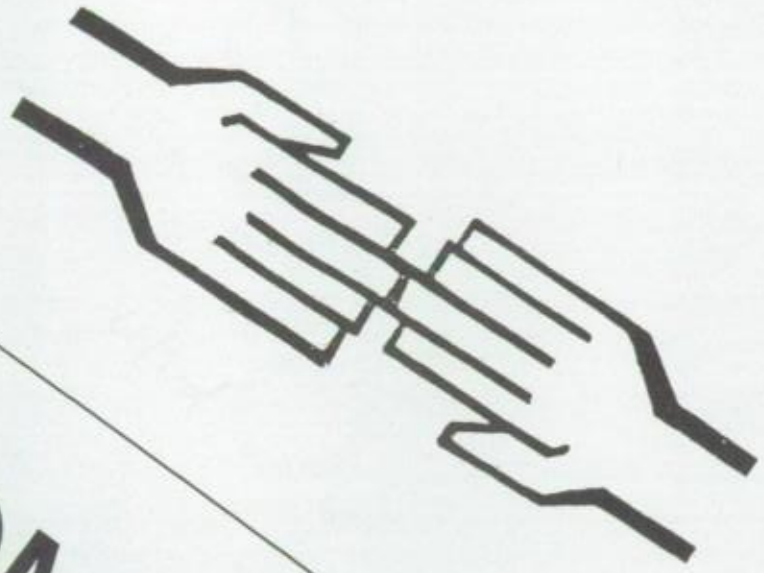
SOPHOMORES



SENSATIONAL is the word for Debra Baker, national qualifier in dramatic interpretation. Debra and her speech coach Sonja Bankston are to be congratulated for their performances. Both will journey to the National Forensic League's annual tournament at Princeton High, Cincinnati, Ohio, where Debra will compete against 300 students. She qualified for the tourney by taking first place in a 75-school semi-final sponsored by the Southern California Debate League and Orange County Forensic League

We dared,
And we shared,
But most of all,
We cared . . .
Together.
